

KOLDING

- visit & discover

HOST OF THE EUROPEAN CHAMPIONSHIPS 2017

Kolding is great fun for everyone, and it has that very cozy small-town feel. Kolding has a nice view from the seaside and the sea is within walking distance of the city center.

You have KOLDINGHUS, Jutland's last royal castle, Danish design at TRAPHOLT art and design museum as well as lots of activities for children. LEGOLAND is only about half an hour away!

The beautiful natural environment around Kolding is perfect for outdoor activities such as mountain biking, canoeing and angling. Stay a few days and enjoy our treats. We look forward to seeing you.

In Kolding you will find different kinds of historical attractions. You can visit an old castle in Kolding. It has been a central part of Denmark's history for 800 years. Enjoy the many museums in Kolding and take a walk in Kolding's Latin Quarter where you will find one of Denmark's largest historical school buildings. It has become a modern and exciting cultural center for the entire family.

After a day with many new impressions and experiences - the restaurants and cafés are waiting for you. They are ready to treat you with food and beverages, varying in both prices and origin. In the countryside the inns tempt you with a more relaxed pace and gastronomic experiences.

Kolding's vision is focused on design and has proud traditions in design, art and architecture. Along the stream passing through Kolding lies the new Design City Kolding near University of Southern Denmark, which will be an entire new part of town dedicated to design. Kolding has a numerous small design enterprises and galleries, all of which give the impression of Kolding being a source of design, art, and architecture.
