If any NOC has more athletes/pairs qualified in any event than its entitled number of Quota Places, according to the BWF World Ranking Lists of 28 March 2023, that NOC can decide to decline a Quota Place allocated to a higher ranked athlete/pair and choose a lower ranked eligible athlete/pair. The NOC will however not be able to enter a declined athlete/pair at the time of the final entries, should the lower ranked athlete/pair become unavailable.

C. ATHLETE ELIGIBILITY

C.1. Compliance with the Olympic Charter and other relevant rules

All athletes must respect and comply with the provisions of the Olympic Charter currently in force, including but not limited to Rule 41 (Nationality of Competitors) and Rule 43 (World Anti-Doping Code and the Olympic Movement Code on the Prevention of Manipulation of Competitions).

Only those athletes who respect and comply with the Olympic Charter, the World Anti-Doping Code and the Olympic Movement Code on the Prevention of Manipulation of Competitions, including the conditions of participation established by the EOC and the rules of Badminton Europe, may participate in the 2023 European Games.

C.2. Age requirements

There is no age limit to be eligible to participate in badminton events in the 2023 European Games.

C.3. Additional Badminton Europe criteria

To be eligible to participate in the 2023 European Games, all athletes must have played in a minimum of three (3) tournaments, counting towards the BWF World Ranking Lists during the Qualification period, and be registered in the BWF World Ranking Lists of 28 March 2023.

D. QUALIFICATION PATHWAY

The qualification system allows for the participation of the best athletes through an open and transparent process within the framework of the Olympic Charter.

The BWF World Ranking Lists of 28 March 2023 will be used to allocate the athletes Quota Places in Men's and Women's Singles, Men's and Women's and Mixed Doubles.

The BWF World Ranking Lists of 28 March 2023 shall be changed into European Ranking Lists by removing all players, who are not qualified to represent any NOC in accordance with EOC regulations, and this European Ranking list shall be used to allocate places.

Only pairs with athletes from the same NOC will be considered during the quota allocation in doubles and mixed events.

D.2. Host NOC Places

The host NOC will automatically qualify 1 athlete in each singles event and 2 athletes (1 pair) in each doubles event on the condition that the athletes meet the eligibility requirements described under section C of this document.

Host NOC will only be granted a place in an event if host country athletes did not obtain a quota place in that event during the qualification period.

D.3. Universality Places

Three (3) Male Universality Places and three (3) Female Universality Places are made available to the eligible NOCs at the 2023 European Games: one (1) in Men's and Women's Singles events each, and two (2) (1 pair) in Men's Doubles and Women's Doubles events each. These places will be allocated by the EOC in conjunction with the Badminton Europe.

D.4. EYOF 2022 Places

Gold medalists of the Men's Singles and Women's Singles events at the 2022 EYOF in Banska Bystrica will each be allocated a quota place for 2023 European Games. These quota places will not count towards the maximum NOC quota in the respective events. Should the quota place for the gold medalist/-s be declined, no other player/-s shall qualify from the 2022 EYOF, but instead the European Ranking List of 28 March 2023 shall be used to determine the qualifier.

E. CONFIRMATION PROCESS FOR QUOTA PLACES

The EOC will inform by email the respective NOCs of their allocated quota places by 3 April 2023.

By 11 April 2023, eligible NOCs must inform, by email, the EOC whether or not they intend to use the allocated quota places and participate at the 2023 European Games.

By 2 May 2023, the EOC, in agreement with the Badminton Europe, will reallocate all unused quota places.

F. REALLOCATION OF UNUSED QUOTA PLACES

Any unused quota place (including qualification places, host NOC places, universality places and EYOF 2022 places) will be allocated to the next best ranked player/pair in The European Ranking List of 28 March 2023, from the NOC not yet qualified in the respective event. This process will be repeated until all places are allocated.
